OF COMPENSATION FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED
AND REIMBURSEMENT OF ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES
INCURRED FROM FEBRUARY 1, 2006 THROUGH MAY 31, 2006

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT D. DRAIN,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

KPMG LLP, a professional services firm, tax and transaction services advisors to Delphi Corporation, and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (the "Debtors"), submits its second application (the "Application"), pursuant to sections 330(a) and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), for interim allowance of compensation for professional services performed by KPMG LLP for the period commencing February 1,

2006 through and including May 31, 2006 (the “Compensation Period”), and for reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, and respectfully represents:

Background

1. On October 8, 2005 (the “Petition Date”), 39 of 42 Debtors, and on October 14, 2005, the remaining Debtors, commenced their respective cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases under Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) (Docket Nos. 28 and 404).

3. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Creditors’ Committee”). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors’ cases. On May 11, 2006, the US Trustee appointed the committee of equity security holders (the “Equity Committee”).

Jurisdiction

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

5. The statutory predicate for the relief requested herein are sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016.

KPMG LLP Retention

6. On February 16, 2006, the Debtors filed an application pursuant to sections 327(a), 328(a) and 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2014, for authorization to retain KPMG LLP as tax and transaction services advisors to the Debtors, effective nunc pro tunc to October 8, 2005 (the “KPMG Retention Application”), pursuant to the terms of the engagement letters as described therein (the “Engagement Letters”). On March 3, 2006, the Court entered an order approving the KPMG Retention Application pursuant to the terms and conditions of such order, effective nunc pro tunc to October 8, 2005 (the “KPMG Retention Order”).

7. On April 20, 2006, the Debtors filed a supplemental application (the “KPMG Supplemental Retention Application”) for authorization to expand the retention of the scope of KPMG LLP to include the matters set forth in certain additional engagement letters, by and between the Debtors and KPMG LLP, each as described therein (the “First Supplemental Engagement Letters”). On May 2, 2006, this Court entered an order approving the KPMG Supplemental Retention Application, pursuant to the terms of the First Supplemental Engagement Letters, effective nunc pro tunc to (i) February 16, 2006 for the employment and retention of KPMG LLC as advisory and valuation advisors to the Debtors, (ii) January 1, 2006 for the continued retention of KPMG LLP as tax advisors to the Debtors, and (iii) January 18, 2006 for the additional international executive tax services to be rendered by KPMG LLP to the Debtors.

Procedures and Monthly Fee Statements

8. This Application has been prepared in accordance with (i) the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New

York Bankruptcy Cases, adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the “Local Guidelines”), (ii) the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330, adopted on January 30, 1996 (the “UST Guidelines”) and (iii) the (A) Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, dated November 4, 2005 (the “Interim Compensation Order”), (B) the Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, dated March 8, 2006 (the “Supplemental Interim Compensation Order”), (C) the Second Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, dated March 28, 2006 (the “Second Supplemental Interim Compensation Order”), (D) the Third Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, dated May 5, 2006 (the “Third Supplemental Interim Compensation Order”), and (E) the Fourth Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of

Professionals, dated July 12, 2006 (the “Fourth Supplemental Interim Compensation Order,” collectively, the foregoing orders and supplemental orders, hereinafter known as the “Administrative Orders”, and collectively with the Amended Local Guidelines and UST Guidelines, the “Guidelines”).¹ Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, a certification regarding compliance with same is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A.”

9. On April 28, 2006, KPMG LLP filed its first interim fee application (the “First Interim Fee Application”) for the allowance of compensation for professional services performed by KPMG LLP for the period commencing October 5, 2005 through January 31, 2006 (the “First Interim Fee Period”) and for reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred during the First Interim Fee Period. KPMG LLP sought allowance of fees for services to the Debtors during the First Interim Fee Period in the

¹ By order dated May 5, 2006 (the “Fee Committee Order”), this Court appointed a Joint Fee Review Committee (the “Fee Committee”). Pursuant to the Fee Committee Order, the Fee Committee issued a Memorandum dated June 19, 2006, which set forth certain procedures and deadlines applicable in the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases (the “Memorandum”). The Memorandum stated, among other things, that the deadline to file fee applications for the Compensation Period is August 15, 2006. KPMG LLP understood that such deadline superseded the deadlines in the Administrative Orders. On the afternoon of July 31, 2006, counsel to KPMG LLP learned that counsel for the Debtors sent an email to certain professionals (KPMG LLP’s counsel of record, King & Spalding LLP was not included in the distribution list for such email) purporting to set the deadline for July 31, 2006. KPMG LLP believes that, despite such email, the deadline to file second interim fee applications remains August 15, 2006. KPMG LLP has discussed this matter with the US Trustee (who is also a member of the Fee Committee) and understands that the Fee Committee also believes the applicable deadline is August 15, 2006. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, KPMG LLP is filing its Application at this time, and requests that, in light of the foregoing, the Court deem the Application timely filed. In any event, since a hearing on this Application will not take place until October 19, 2006, there is no prejudice to the filing of this Application on August 3, 2006.

KPMG LLP has been paid $1,078,901.20 in compensation for professional services rendered and $17,631.00 for reimbursement of expenses during the First Interim Period.

On or about July 31, 2006, the Debtors paid KPMG LLP $33,355.81 (one-half of the 20% holdback) pursuant to the Fourth Interim Compensation Order.

During the Compensation Period, KPMG LLP professionals and paraprofessionals expended a total of 20,979.5 hours for which compensation is requested. KPMG LLP's request for compensation is broken down as follows:

The KPMG global network encompasses independent professional services practices conducted by separate legal entities throughout the world. KPMG International, a Swiss cooperative, serves as a coordinating entity for a network of member firms operating under the KPMG name. KPMG International is a member-based entity with no shareholders and no permanent capital. Each of the member firms of KPMG International ("KPMG Member Firms") is separate and legally distinct.

² The foregoing amount does not include an agreed upon reduction in the amount of $90,496 of KPMG LLP's fees under the International Tax Process Improvement Engagement.

16. Prior to the Petition Date, KPMG LLP subcontracted with certain other KPMG Member Firms to provide services to the Debtors as set forth in the Engagement Letters. Pursuant to the KPMG Retention Order, during the Compensation Period, KPMG Member Firms have continued to assist KPMG LLP in the provision of services under the Engagement Letters as set forth in the KPMG Retention Application.

17. KPMG LLP charges its fees in these cases in accordance with billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates KPMG LLP charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in these chapter 11 cases are the same rates KPMG LLP charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable nonbankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable nonbankruptcy cases.

20. Pursuant to section II.D of the UST Guidelines, annexed hereto as Exhibit "D" is a summary of KPMG LLP's time records billed during the Compensation Period, including the utilization of project categories as described below.

21. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Compensation Period, but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, KPMG LLP reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

The Requested Compensation Should Be Allowed

30. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." Id. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

⁴ See supra note 3.

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial to, at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and
- (E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

Id. § 330(a)(3).

31. The services for which KPMG LLP seeks compensation and the expenditures for which KPMG LLP seeks reimbursement in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the orderly administration of the Debtors' estates and their rehabilitation and reorganization effort. KPMG LLP worked assiduously to anticipate or respond to the Debtors' needs and assist in the Debtors' chapter 11 processes. These services and expenditures were necessary to and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors. Accordingly, the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.

32. In sum, the services rendered by KPMG LLP were necessary and beneficial to the Debtors' estates and were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved, and approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, KPMG LLP respectfully requests that the Court: (i) allow KPMG LLP interim compensation for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period in the amount of $7,383,043.00 and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses KPMG LLP incurred during the Compensation Period in the amount of $430,790.04; (ii) direct the Debtors to pay KPMG LLP the total amount of outstanding fees in connection with KPMG LLP's representation of the Debtors during the Second Interim Fee Period; (iii) hold that the allowance of such interim compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred be without prejudice to KPMG LLP's right to seek additional compensation for services performed and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period which were not processed at the time of this Second Interim Fee Application; and (iv) grant KPMG LLP such other and further relief as is just.
